May 21, 2021

To our Visitors, Sponsors, Vendors and Friends,

On April 21st. the North Ridgeville Corn Festival announced that due to issues involved with the COVID-19 pandemic, namely the uncertainty of the COVID-19 restrictions at the time of the festival and the lack of sufficient planning time, the Corn Festival Committee felt that it would not be possible to put the event on this year. With the recent lifting of the restrictions by the governor and discussions with the Lorain County Health Dept., the committee met and are pleased to announce that we will have the Corn Festival Aug.13-15 and bring back the highlight of the summer in the City of North Ridgeville.

Due to the relative short time to organize the event and the fact that we have a shortage of volunteers, it will not be an easy task. The Corn Festival Committee is seeking volunteer support from the community. If you would like to support us by volunteering some of your time to help us have a successful event, please come to the Pavilion at South Central Park next to the concession stand on Tuesday May 25th. at 7pm (rain or shine) to learn how you can help us celebrate our 46th. North Ridgeville Corn Festival.

We would like to thank our sponsors, volunteers, and the community of North Ridgeville for their past support and look forward to seeing everyone at the 2021 North Ridgeville Corn Festival.

Sincerely,

The North Ridgeville Corn Festival Committee

John Butkowski
