May 15, 2020

To our Visitors, Sponsors, Vendors, and Friends,

The North Ridgeville Corn Festival Committee has been monitoring the COVID-19 pandemic. Our concern has always been for the safety of our attendees. Due to the high degree of uncertainty about what the coming months will hold; and in the best interest of the general public, our volunteers, vendors, entertainers, it is with great sadness that we have made the difficult decision to cancel this year's North Ridgeville Corn Festival that was scheduled for August 7-9.

Everyone is deeply disappointed with the cancellation of the festival as the festival has been the highlight of the summer in the city of North Ridgeville for forty-five years. We know that families and businesses plan their attendance at the festival months in advance and we wanted to get our decision out as early as possible to help with their planning.

The North Ridgeville Corn Festival will be back to celebrate our 46th festival on August 13-15, 2021. We would like to thank all of our sponsors, volunteers, and the community of North Ridgeville for their past support and look forward to seeing them at the 2021 North Ridgeville Corn Festival.

Sincerely,

The North Ridgeville Corn Festival Committee

John Butkowski
